The Next state Pair. PROPOSED PLAN FOR MAKING A SUCCESSFUI

The following communication was re-selved yesterday by the gentlemen to whom it was addressed:

VIRUNIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, RICHMOND, VA., March 23, 1883.
To Messrs. John S. Ellett and H. Clay Breedry, Chairmen of the Committees of the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club: Gentlemen,-The committee of the Vir

Gentlemen,—The committee of the Virginia State Agricultural Society appointed to cooperate with your committee in reference to promoting the interests of the cluy and Society teld a meeting to-day, and it being reported that no action had been taken since the joint meetings of the committees on March 1st, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted—viz.:

As it is necessary that the premium list of the State Fair should be published as soon after the meeting of the Executive Committee, to be held on the 11th of April next, as possible, and as the said commit-next, as possible, and as the said commit-tee will at that time have to adopt and state the amount of premiums, and also the at-tractions to be offered at the Fair,

Resolves, 1. That whatever efforts are to be made to raise funds by voluntary contributions to increase the premiums and add to the attractions of the next Fair, with a seew to the benefit of the business interests of the city and the interests of the Society, should be immediately understaken.

2. That Isaac Davenport, Jr., and John P. Branck, of this committee, are hereby appointed a special committee to act with the said committees in obtaining donations from the various railroad companies in the

George W. Mayo, Secretary.

In transmitting these proceedings of the committee I desire to express to you my entire concurrence with your views in regard to the increased attractions to be pre-sented at the next exhibition of the Socie-ty, and the manner of providing for them. With a liberal assistance from the business-men and people of the city of Richmond we will have no difficulty in presenting to the public in October next one of the most successful, satisfactory, and important ex hibitions that has ever been held upon the grounds of the society, and one which will reflect credit upon all who interest them-selves in securing that success.

Permit me, gentlemen, to return to yourselves and your committees my sincere personal thanks for the interest which you have evinced in this matter, and for the assistance which you propose to render the Society in bringing about ends which will result, I am sure, in prosperity to the Somond, and to the advancement of the material interests of the people of the whole State. Very respectfully, WILLIAMS C. WICKHAM, President.

With the view of carrying out projected plans with reference to the Fair the following gentlemen are requested to meet to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock in the room ing geptlemen are requested to meet to morrow evening at 6 o'clock in the room of the Chamber of Commerce, Commercial Club building: H. T. Miller, Gus. Milhiser, W. W. Ellington, W. H. Weisiger, H. Westerhoff, J. Strause, O. O. Owens, E. A. Catlin, A. J. Ford, Jr., Benjamin T. Crump, Joe Fourqurean, Junius B. Mosby, Everett Waddy, Polk Miller, W. Scott Carrington, W. Gans, Joseph M. Blair, W. L. White, George A. Ainslie, Henry Tyler, O. H. Berry, W. S. Donnan, Jr., E. H. Chalkley, John H. Gresham, C. P. Stokes, E. E. Taylor, Herman Boschen, Andrew Pizzini, William Heller, and Herman Schmidt.

suited Hon. A. M. Keiley, City Attorney, TOR RENT, NEW BRICK DWELLfunds the money necessary to carry out the project should be drawn from. Mr. Keiley replied in a written opinion, in which he cited many authorities to show that under the law all moneys needed to pay officers and servants of the court, and provide fuel, furniture, stationery, &c., were chargable on the books of the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State.

Mr. Ketley also was of the opinion that cities and counties should provide sites and pay the cost of building all court-houses, and keep them in order afterwards.

Mr. B. H. Berry handen this opinion to Attorney-General Francis S. Blair, who differed with Mr. Keiley, and yesterday morning Mr. Berry received from Captain Blair a written notice to this effect: The Attorney said he was of the opinion that neither the expenses for furniture, fuel, tetionery or the salary of the index himstationery, or the salary of the judge him-self should be paid out of the State trea-sury, but that all are charges upon and to be paid out of the treasury of the city of Richmond; and that he bad so instructed the Auditor of Public Accounts.

Continuing, Captain Blair wrote that "chapter 161 of the Code, that defines the courts in which the Attorney-General shall appear for the State, as well as Acts of 1877-78, chapter 183, amendatory thereof, while enumerating a number of courts in which he shall appear for the State, nowhere imposes upon him the duty of ap-pearing in the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond. The inference drawn from this is that the General Assembly has never recognized it as a State court, for the expenses of which the State treasury is in Heretofore the city of Richmond and the the plage of the Chancery Court has been getting $2,300 from the State and $900 from the city of Richmond. The decision of the Attorney-General leaves Judge Holladay only the latter.

Judge Holladay yesterday was asked about the matter, but he seemed more anxious to hear the views of Colonel Cutshaw, City Engineer, in regard to the size of the Chancery-Court room, which is to be in the new City Hall, and about which the two were conferring, than to talk about this question. The matter of his pay did not seem to disturb the Judge at ail. In reply to a question, he said he had no idea as to what motive, if any, actuated the movement, and he did not express any decided expinion as to what course the movement. opinion as to what course the matter would

On yesterday the Democratic County Committee, consisting of E. C. Minor feounty superintendent), Simon Solomon, Myer Angle, L. T. Wickham, and Jackson
F. Childrey, (district superintendents,) met at the county court-house, and adopted the following plan for nominating county officers for the May election—namely, to hold district meetings of the voters of each magisterial district on Thursday the 5th of April at 2 o'clock P. M., each of which meetings shall elect six delegates to compose a convention which will meet at Henrico county court-house on Saturday the 7th day of April at 12 o'clock to make nominations.

The meetings in the various districts are to be held at the following places: In Fairfield, at Hardin's Shop; in Varina, at the Town Hall; in Brookland, at Brun's precinct; in Tuckahoe, at Forks of the Road.

"Mrs. Partington, what do you use for a very had cold?" asked Mrs. Duli. "Handkerchiefs, ma'am," answered the aged dame, looking over her spectacles. Handkerchiefs are a desideratum in the event of a cold, but a hottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a necessity, because it not only relieves, but cures the worst cold or cough.
